

Spring Accomplishment!!

Cleaning

I have been trying for a long time to reduce the number of messages that I have in the INBOX. I know that I have lots of duplicates (since I changed email addresses), lots of sales pitches for things that I am no longer interested in, and subscriptions for businesses and applications have have gone out of business.

I made a important goal that I would get the inbox to zero so that I only had to deal with the important stuff for 2023. Stuff piled up after my 2018 accident and I just never got it all dealt with. Too much clutter!!!

I DID IT!!! Inbox zero. Now on to major spring cleaning and unsubscribing so I can refocus on what is important.
